Ward 4, comprises all that portion South of Fort street and mauks of Hotel street. Thus, when the slarm of fire is given, our citizens living in the city or the suburbs, by listening to the clang of this bell will be enabled to know at once the situation of the fire, and the firemen will no longer be compelled to run wildly about to find out the quarter from which the slarm

Report of the Examining Committee, on Common Schools.

14 To Hox. W. P. KAWAKAU.

President of the Board of Education. Agreeably with the duty imposed on us, of examining the Common Schools in the Hawalian language, we have performed that work and have attended attentively, the examinations of the schools above mentioned, and now endeavor to give a report, of the status and improvement in the Common Schools of this District, taught in the Hawallan language.

The examinations of these Schools commenced, agreeably to the notice issued by the Secretary of the Board, on Monday the 21st ance of a beaventy bose.

The feneral will take place This Afternoon, at 5 of June, at the Kamoiliill Church, punctualoricick, from the residence of Chief Justice Allen. SIMONSON—At Halke, Mant, in his 187th year, by at nine o'clock A. M., and continuing till William E Simonson, a native of New Jersey.—New-ling the examination of the Schools held on ly at nine o'clock A. M., and continuing till ing the examination of the Schools held on that day, your Committee do not heeltate to say, that the majority of the Schools showed THE ABOVE REWARD WILL BE progress : the fiirls' Schools at Walkikikai, I paid, for any information which will under a female teacher, being, however, an lead to the recovery of an ENGLISH STAB-LING, which escaped from the underrigned about two weeks since. This STARLING has black wings and back, with small white gress this year, in all the branches taught; and the same is true of the Manoa School. C. P. WARD. The Schools of Kamellilli, Manos. Palolo, nalus, and the Kalihi-uka, and Kanalama Schools; considering that these Schools are Kahuna Nawaakoa, the Pauca School, and the Maemae School under the instruction of Mr. Kahukula: Of these Schools, the Kawaialso was the most advanced. The larger boys were well up in figures, and were studying which they had been instructed, it was evinced that they had been thoroughly taught, and clearly understood what had been gone over. The other Schools, also, showed improvement.

On Thursday, the last day of the examinations, five Schools were examined; the two on the Roman Catholic premises, the Kawaia-bao Girls' School, under Mrs. Kaiauli, the beer filled by others and the business goes on as usual. The Junta are cofident that kapili. With the progress of all these Schools, the Committee find no fault. Three of these Schools were well up in figures. The two Girls' Schools, under the instruction of Mrs. Kilikina and Mrs. Kalauli, showed good progress in everything in which they had been instructed. Your Committee were shown some specimens of needle-work by the scholars of Mrs. Kilikina's School, which were very creditable.

All the Schools of this District have now been examined, and after careful and attentive consideration, we are able to say, unhesitatingly, that improvement has been made since last year. It was evident to the Committee, that the practice of skipping about in the text-books, had been abandoned, and that majority of the children had been faithfully instructed, which was evident from the progress made in our Schools. The Schools, the children is probably more regular, than in those Schools away from the centre.

The Committee observed, that in reading, the scholars read too fast, and that some words were thereby skipped. This is a matwords were thereby skipped. This is a matter that the teachers should attend to, as the object should be to read deliberately and clearly, and to be properly understood. A deficiency exists in the want of a suitable reader, the book principally used for that purpose being the New Testament, which it is thought, is too difficult for beginners just through with the Primer.

Your Committee, were pleased to see that a commencement had been made, in the Kalibian School, at writing Compositions, and we least coast of New Ulster. Troops were despatched to the settlement, and on arrival
